EAT, EAT, REPEAT at Dearborn Restaurant Week

DEARBORN, Mich. (Jan. XX, 2019) – For a diverse, cultural dining experience showcasing a delicious taste of what Dearborn has to offer, food lovers should look no further than the third annual Dearborn Restaurant Week. The weeklong event returns to Downtown Dearborn Feb. 11 - 17, 2019, promising to entertain discerning palates with more than 30 participating restaurants.

The wide array of local cuisine found only in Dearborn as part of Dearborn Restaurant Week will expose restaurant goers to hidden gems, new-to-the-scene hot spots and the opportunity to rediscover longtime favorites. Throughout the week, each participating Dearborn restaurant will offer their regular menu alongside a special Dearborn Restaurant Week menu plating a prix-fixe, 3-course meal priced at $10, $20 or $30 for either lunch and/or dinner, and for one or two people.

“The lunch and dinner options and affordable price points makes Dearborn Restaurant Week the ideal time to sample Dearborn’s diverse food scene,” said organizer and West Dearborn Downtown Development Authority (DDA) Chairperson Sam Abbas, Founder of Afor Concepts. Ordering from the Dearborn Restaurant Week menu is encouraged, but not required.

“Downtown Dearborn is a top Metro Detroit food destination and we are continuing to add new spaces and experiences to explore,” said Cristina Sheppard-Decius, Dearborn Downtown Development Authorities’ Executive Director. “Dearborn Restaurant Week is really an opportunity to celebrate the incredible culinary talent and options we offer in Downtown Dearborn as we invite all to pull up a chair and dig in!”

No tickets are required to participate. Interested participants should visit DearbornRestaurantWeek.com for the growing list of participating restaurants and to determine if there are reservation requirements.

Participating restaurants to date include: Al Ameer, , bd’s Mongolian Grill, Brome Modern Eatery, The Butcher’s Grille, Caesars Coney and Grill, Cheat Treats, Dearborn Meat Market, Edison’s, Famous Hamburger, Ford’s Garage, Habib’s Cuisine, LA Bistro, La Fork, La Pita, La Shish, Lefty’s Cheesesteak, Lue Thai Café, M Cantina, Mint 29, Mocha Bistro, New York Deli, Peacock Indian Cuisine, Sheeba Restaurant, Shawarma Bash, Trio Eats, Xushi Ko and Zo’s Good Burger, with new restaurants being added daily.
